Meet Your 2008 Democratic Candidates – Part 2

Jeff Mann for State Assembly – District 53

Birthplace: Berlin, Wisconsin

Family: Married for five years; father of a two-year-old son

Education: Oconomowoc High School; University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh, B.S./Criminal Justice; Marquette University Law School, J.D.

Occupation: Attorney, Wallace & Wallace SC (Oshkosh, WI)

Residence: Town of Algoma, WI

Dear Friend in the 53rd,

My name is Jeff Mann, and I'd like to represent your interests in the State Assembly. As the cost of property taxes, fuel, and health care continues to climb, each day I grow more alarmed by what the future may hold. Will my son have the same opportunities that I've been blessed with? Will your job still be here next year at this time? Can we still afford to continue living where we do now? While I can't guarantee you that the answer to all of these questions will be yes, I can promise you that I'll do everything in my control to lay these worries to rest. As your representative, you will have an honest, persistent and loyal presence in Madison.

Susan Garcia-Franz for State Assembly – District 56

Susan is very passionate about the issues she works on daily. Since graduating from the University of Wisconsin – Oshkosh, Susan has worked on health care issues, most recently helping women who have little or no health insurance get connected with preventative cancer screenings. The need for my program continues to grow and yet the financial support diminishes day by day.

In the 2006 endorsement of Susan, the Post-Crescent said:

As a coordinator with the Wisconsin Well Woman Program, a state-funded cancer screening program, Susan Garcia Franz has a unique knowledge of health care here.

Garcia Franz, a Democrat from the Town of Menasha, has some reasonable proposals for getting more people insured and lowering costs. It's the reason we're endorsing her in the 56th Assembly District race over Republican Roger Roth Jr. of Grand Chute.

Garcia Franz wants employers and uninsured individuals to be able to join a statewide buying pool for insurance. She also wants the state to demand price disclosures on health care goods and services.

Unfortunately, Susan came in just a little short in 2006, and is running again in 2008. Please support her by contacting here at: 1790 Wendy Way, Menasha, WI 54956 or (920) 727-1005

Mark Wollum for Congress

I have not received any bio info from Mr. Wollum.
